AN EVENING WITH
CLIVE COATES, MW
TO BENEFIT UNIVERSITY SETTLEMENT

MONDAY, MARCH 24, 2014

BOULEY TEST KITCHEN
88 WEST BROADWAY
NEW YORK CITY

SMALL GROUP TUTORED TASTING WITH CLIVE COATES, MW - 5:45 PM
VINTAGE CHAMPAGNE HENRIOT RECEPTION - 7:15 PM
DINNER & AUCTION - 8 PM

Please join us for a very special evening with world-renowned, award-winning Master of Wine, Clive Coates, to benefit the work of University Settlement for low-income and immigrant New York City families.

Following a small group tutored tasting of a selection of 1949 vintage Burgundy wine, guests will join a vintage Champagne reception, and then be treated to a five-course seated dinner prepared by Master Chef David Bouley. Each course will be paired with some of the world’s finest wine, selected by Coates and awarded a perfect rating on his 20-point scale, including 1961 Château Margaux and 1997 Château d’Yquem.

A live auction will be conducted by Michael Jessen, President and CEO at Wally’s Auction House.

The tutored Burgundy tasting is limited to 16 guests.
The reception and dinner is limited to 60 guests.
Clive Coates, MW

Clive Coates, Master of Wine, is one of the world’s leading wine authorities. For his lifetime of distinguished activity in the field, he has been awarded the Chevalier de l’Ordre du Mérite Agricole by the French government, a “Rame d’Honneur” by Le Verre et L’Assiette, the Ruffino/Cyril Ray Memorial Prize for his writings on Italian wine, and the title of “Wine Writer of the Year” for 1998/1999 in the Champagne Lanson awards.

Coates’ independent fine wine magazine, The Vine, was keenly read by oenophiles the world over and received numerous awards, including a special commendation for its considerable contribution to the knowledge and understanding of wine from the Wine Guild of Great Britain. Coates has written for nearly all of the world’s foremost wine publications, and enjoys a reputation as an accomplished and engaging speaker among audiences throughout Europe and the United States.

Coates’ books are widely considered the classic works on their respective subjects. Côte d’Or: A Celebration of the Great Wines of Burgundy won the André Simon Award (UK), the Champagne Veuve Clicquot Prize (USA) and the James Beard Award (USA) for the best wine book of the year, as well as the Prix des Arts et des Lettres, awarded by the Burgundian Confrérie du Tastevin, the first time a book on wine and a non-Burgundian have been so honored for 30 years. The sequel to Côte d’Or, The Wines of Burgundy, was published in 2008, and Coates’ newest book, My Favorite Burgundies, was published in September 2013 by the University of California Press.

Prior to his career as an author, Coates spent 20 years as a professional wine merchant, during which he served as Executive Director of the wines division of British Transport Hotels and established the legendary Malmaison Wine Club. Now semi-retired, Coates lives in southern Burgundy.
University Settlement

Since 1886, University Settlement has helped low-income families and immigrants improve their lives through quality education, decent housing, physical and emotional well being, and opportunities to prosper economically in pursuing the American dream. Every year, the organization supports over 30,000 New Yorkers with programs at 27 locations throughout New York City. University Settlement is among New York’s most highly regarded non-profits, with programs that are nationally-recognized and set industry and city-wide standards.
