University Settlement has been helping low-income and immigrant families to build better lives for almost 125 years. Today, University Settlement offers many free programs to meet the needs of every member of a family.

For young children: Early Head Start; pre-school classes for children ages 2 to 5; therapy for children with special needs.

For school-age children: After-school and summer programs; crisis intervention for children with urgent needs; supportive services for teens.

For adults: Literacy classes; counseling and mental health services; childcare training and referrals.

For seniors: Recreation and lifelong learning opportunities; nutritious meals.

For the whole family: Recreational and educational opportunities at our community centers on the Lower East Side and in Fort Greene. Arts and culture programs at our historic home on Eldridge Street.

University Settlement’s Ingersoll Community Center is a beautiful new building located in the heart of the Fort Greene, Brooklyn community. We offer an open door and exciting programming for community members of all ages, from elementary school children to senior citizens. The Center serves NYCHA residents as well as residents of Fort Greene and surrounding neighborhoods.

- Our beautiful facilities include a gym, fitness center, computer center, kitchen and dining room, classrooms and library/meeting room.
- Our special focus is on programs for youth of all ages, from after-school and day camp programs to sports teams, education, arts, career, and health and wellness activities.
- Neighborhood organizations are invited to utilize our space to offer a range of activities to community members.
- Our doors are open to all, including speakers of other languages.
- All services are provided FREE OF CHARGE to all participants.

Our multicultural staff speak English and Spanish.

No matter what your age, the Ingersoll Community Center has programs just for you.
